Thoss Education Service is an independent education advisor based in the Black Forest, Germany. Unlike others,we go beyond the traditional role of an education agency, we are personal development planner for students toward their study and career. TES believes in quality education for future development which guarantees our devotion but also flexibility in recommending the best fit education institution to students. In order not to be compromised in service, we charge a reasonable fee for advising and assisting in the process.

Price List (individual pricing)

University Search & recommendation

1. Evaluation and establish a student profile , including academic record, strength and weakness.
2. Provide a thorough and professional consultation on study in Germany, according to student's study preference, long term target, academic and financial ability.
3. Provide a list of most fitting, promising and with highest admission possibility University programmes (up to 20 choices for University Programmes)
4. Provide detailed information about selected University Programmes, including teaching vision, school facilities, subjects selection, school environment, etc.
5. Provide a detailed budget including programme fee, boarding fee, extra-activities costs and living costs.
6. Finalize 5 University programmes for application.

Price: 450€ (DSE graduates, Bachelor seeking and only English program)
900€ (All programs)

Express Service +50%*

*Express Service applies to applicants who request service 1 month before the application deadline.

University Application:

1. Brief check on the compactability of selected (max. 5) University programmes to applicant´s profile
2. Prepare and summarized necessary documents for application purpose
3. Assist in preparation of documents including curriculum vitae and motivation letters
4. Apply for selected University programs before application deadline on behalf of applicant
5. Assist in application payment arrangement *
6. Arrange interviews for the entrance exam when needed.
7. Track application process and application results to provide first hand information

 payment arrange means assistance in making payment, it does not include paying fee on behalf of parents*

Price: 600€

Express Service: +50%*

*Express Service applies to applicants who request service 1 month before the application deadline.

Visa application

1. Assist in Visa application
2. Prepare all necessary documents to apply for Visa, including prepare motivation letter* and CV
3. Help with application of block account
4. Help with application of health insurance in Germany

Price: Student Visa 250€;

Language Visa for Study Preparation 400€;

Other Visa by Quotation

*Motivation Letter is only necessary by some Visa type

price only applied to applicants from Hong Kong, Macau, United Kingdom and Australia

Language School search & arrangement €550

1. Provide a language learning plan, advise on the length and programme to participate in order to minimize the duration and maximize learning result.
2. Provide at least 3 suitable language schools for selection, based on student's preference and financial ability as well as the reputation of language school.
3. Present detailed information about selected language schools, including language school location, programme plan and description, programme duration, etc.
4. Summarized budget comparison of these language schools including programme fee and extra costs for specific high school preparation programmes if necessary.
5. Advice on selection and assist in applying for the best suited language school

Other services by quotation

1. Guardianship Service
2. Flights arrangement to Germany
3. Transportation arrangement from German airport to destination
4. Settle service including town hall registration, insurance application, mobile contract, etc
5. Summer Language school